

Candidates Expressions of Interest

Secretary

Olawale Olayide will bring onboard cognate experience, innovation and dynamism to the Office of the Secretary of ISDRS. Olawale joined the ISDRS in 2013. He has over the years garnered experience as a Member, Member of the Board as well as a Member of the Executive Board. Olawale is a beacon of influence for ISDRS, especially in Africa. His affiliation, the University of Ibadan, Nigeria, is the only institutional member of ISDRS in Africa. He also chairs the ISDRS conference track session on Sustainability in Africa. Olawale enjoys working with people from multicultural backgrounds.

Director of Membership:

G. Shainesh: I propose to understand the needs of individual and institutional members to assess opportunities and develop plans for greater engagement and participation in the activities of ISDRS. This understanding will help us develop plans to attract new members, including institutions and corporates, to diversify our membership base. I plan to leverage my role as Chair - Executive Education at IIM Bangalore to initiate conversations with business leaders and motivate them to join ISDRS.

Treasurer

Hanna Ahlström: I believe that I have a suitable background for this position as I have experience as a treasurer of the PhD Council at the Faculty of Law, University of Oslo and have been working as an assistant accountant at the Archipelago Foundation in Stockholm where I was responsible for accounts payable. I also have a BSc degree in Economics with a minor in Business Administration. I also would like to stress the importance of considering the gender balance of the Executive board and that I as a Swede have experience with the Swedish bank- and tax system, including the language.

Director of Communications

Janaina Macke: I can help with the newsletter and propose content for the website. The idea is to make people interested in following the activities of the ISDRS group.
